

A Time for Breakthrough

The Lord is increasing discernment of His voice. He is sharpening and heightening sensitivity to Him because He absolutely loves us. At times, we may feel that the Lord has abandoned us but it may be because He is calling us to a new place, so that we are not stuck. He surely is leading us into green pastures and unto right paths for Jesus' sake. He is our Teacher who is now appearing to show us all things of the Father's great love. Do not question the Father's love; just learn to drink of it. His love is experienced with the heart more than figured out with the mind. It is better 'caught' than taught.

The Father desires for us to lean heavier into Holy Spirit and His control and His leading for He will carry us into a greater expression of the yoke of the Lord that is easy and light. A clearer awareness of Holy Spirit's workings; a deeper relationship with Holy Spirit is vital in the days ahead.

Prophetic Word:

Breakthrough is at hand so take My hand as I bring you through to a new land. I have heard your heart cry and know that I am at work. There is a season of renewing of minds to a greater degree of spiritual life, and what it means. Tune your heart to mine. What you behold you become.

Learn to listen to My voice. Learn to rejoice at the still small voice. Know that I have put garments of praise upon you instead of the spirit of heaviness. I am pulling you through to new dimensions, new expressions. There has been an initiation for acceleration. Acceleration in character and maturity and gifting and anointing. Feed my sheep with all that I am.

Fear not, for I am for you and not against you. I weep with you on this journey. Please know that I am at work both to will and do My good pleasure. You can expect greater things, greater signs ahead. I have gone before you to open up doors, to release to you good works. Good works shall flow through you. It is time to learn intimacy. Some of you have learned intimacy well and now the days are 'at hand' where I stretch forth My hand. The lightnings will flow through My hand. The wonders will be grand as I give you the land.

.../2

The gifts and callings are without repentance. No matter what season is ahead, you cannot lose what has been given for these realms are eternally secured. They have been knit together in who you are. You and the Anointed One are knit together as one. You are My garment on the earth; My garment of Beauty, of Holiness, of Redemption, of Proclamation, of Habitation. It is My good pleasure to make of you, a habitation within which I dwell. Greater Wisdom shall spring forth. New and fresh understanding will come upon us even in our dreams.

My people are all under construction and are all learning to hear My voice but many mistakes have been taking place. Fear no evil. Hear no evil. Speak no evil and you will be free. The pure in heart see God. I have given you a pure heart. Guard it with everything you have. I am giving you grace to grow up and grow beyond soulish issues.

This is the year of breakthrough for many around you. Enjoy your position as children of God. Rejoice in your position. Think of your position often. Meditate on your position and you will be established in the Love of God.

Larry Pearson